

INVITATION TO TENDER

Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung Southeast Europe (RLS SEE) is looking for a graphic designer to produce corporate design of the conference organized by RLS SEE, which includes:

- A poster and envelope of the conference
- A brochure with program of the conference
- Logo of the conference

The international conference »FOR LABOUR RIGHTS. Trans-National Solidarity, Common Goods and Perspectives of Organising« will take place from October 27th – 29th, 2017 in Belgrade, Serbia. Key topics the conference is going to be organised around are: building transnational labour solidarity; organizing and campaigning in public sector; reaching the un- and under-organised workers – mainly young workers which haven't even had an opportunity to unionize/get unionized , but also other classes of workers with precarious employment arrangements.

Graphic designers should take into consideration the topics of the conference and submit the following documents as part of their bid:

- An initial idea of graphic elements and logo of the conference including the title, date and place (in the form of a sketch, size: A4, 150dpi in JPG format)
- Expressive and complete professional CV
- Samples of previous work (up to 2MB in PDF format)

Graphic designers should fulfil the following criteria:

- Experience in graphic design;
- Reliability;
- Interest and experience regarding sociological and political topics.
